UM GRADUATE ART
SHOW STARTS TUESDAY

String quartet music will start the 10 day graduate art show on the University of Montana campus Tuesday, (May 9).

Eight candidates for master of arts and master of fine arts degrees in art will display more than 100 objets d'art from jewelry to an 11-foot airplane. The exhibit opens with a reception, 2-5 p.m., in Brantly Hall lounge including refreshments and the University Young Artists String Quartet.

The exhibit will be open daily in Brantly, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., until May 19. Each exhibitor donated one art item for sale and proceeds will go to the art scholarship fund.

According to Henry Joe, exhibit coordinator, "works will include welded sculpture, three-dimensional painting, paintings with flashing lights, porcelain ceramics and constructive paintings, which are a combination of painting and sculpture."

It will be the first combined art graduate show on the Missoula campus, Joe reported. The ASUM Program Council is co-sponsoring the exhibit.

Candidates for the master of fine arts degrees are Tom Sternal, Minneapolis; Ivan Morrison, Ellsworth, Wisc.; Jackie McElroy, Missoula; Henry Joe, Missoula; and Ward Devlin, Polson.

Candidates for master of arts degrees are Harold Wells, Missoula; Brian Persha, Great Falls; and Helen Kampfe, Red Lodge.
